THEMES

- Pay Forward: As our former President and current TARC manager, Trip Barber, told us in his first Presidential message, “our late founder, G. Harry Stine, used to tell those who asked how anyone could ever repay him for all he had done to make such a difference in our lives he would tell them— Pay Forward. Rocketry is a craftsmanship hobby in a society where such hobbies are increasingly rare. Yet as every public launch we do demonstrates, our hobby still has magical appeal to those who experience it. Each of us should feel an obligation to spread the word about the rewards of rocketry, the benefits and camaraderie of the NAR, and to spend at least a little of our rocketry time helping or teaching others who want to try the hobby. If we do not do this, where will the next generation come from?”
- Internationally: For those who have an opportunity, take the challenge of spreading the word about the rewards of rocketry to the world.
